bne is the only magazine covering business, economics, finance and politics in the 22 dynamic new markets of Central, Eastern and Southeast Europe.

With more than 50 years of collective experience, bne's veteran journalists and can explain the "why" of "what" is going on in one of the fastest growing regions in the world.

New Europe's markets remain unpredictable, but have attracted billions in FDI in recent years while the capitalisation of all the regional stock markets have grown some ten-fold in the last decade.
